4. GUIDELINES

4.1 Whistle Blower

4.1.1 The Whistle Blower must provide all factual corroborating evidence, as is available and to the extent possible, to enable commencement of an investigation at the earliest, preferably within 30 days of the irregularity or breach of the code noticed by him/her. This is to be provided in a standard format namely, the Protected Disclosure Form. The information provided should be on the basis of a direct first-hand experience of the Whistle Blower.

4.1.2 The Protected Disclosure should be submitted under a covering letter signed by the complainant in a closed and secured envelope and should be super scribed as “Protected disclosure under the Whistle Blower policy” or sent through email with the subject “Protected disclosure under the Whistle Blower policy”. If the complaint is not super scribed and closed as mentioned above, the protected disclosure will be dealt with as if a normal disclosure.

All Protected Disclosures should be addressed to the Vigilance Officer of the Company or to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in exceptional cases.

4.1.3 It should not be based on any secondary, unreliable source such as grapevine or any other form of informal communication.

4.1.4 Whistle Blowers are not to act on their own in conducting any:

- Investigation
- Data Irregularity
- Untrue Statements
- Methods, facilities, controls etc used to manufacture Lead & Lead products
- Inadequate stability or QA/QC systems

4.1.5 If the Whistle Blower chooses to disclose his or her identity to the Vigilance officer, the authenticity of the Whistle Blower's identity will be established by the Vigilance officer before considering the case for the purpose of investigation. This shall be done through the contact details provided by the Whistle Blower in the Protected Disclosure Form, while maintaining the confidentiality.

4.1.6 The Protected Disclosure made by the Whistle Blower must be genuine with adequate supporting data/proof. If it is established that the allegation was made with mala-fide intentions or was frivolous in nature, or was not genuine, the Whistle Blower shall be subject to Disciplinary Action.

4.1.7 The Whistle Blower may also choose to be anonymous. However, it may sometimes be difficult or even impossible to thoroughly investigate the disclosures that are made anonymously. The Whistle Blower is, therefore, strongly encouraged to share his/her identity when making the disclosure.

4.1.8 In case of anonymous disclosure, Vigilance officer shall, at his/her end, examine the possible intentions and genuineness of the disclosure in advance before going ahead with the investigation. In case Vigilance officer suspects that the allegation has been made with mala-fide intention or is frivolous in nature, or is not genuine, he/she can decide to drop the case.

4.2 Confidentiality

All concerns and issues raised under this Policy shall be treated in a confidential manner except to the extent necessary to conduct a complete, fair and effective investigation.

Similarly, the identities of the Whistle Blower and the Investigation Subject shall be treated with confidentiality at all times and shall only be disclosed to the investigating team for facilitation of proper investigation, if required.

4.3 Protection to Whistle Blower

4.3.1 No unfair treatment shall be exhibited towards the Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a protected disclosure under this policy and the Company shall ensure that full protection has been granted to him/her under the circumstances that Whistle Blower provides complete identity, against:

4.3.1 (a) Unfair employment practices like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination / suspension of services / contracts etc.

4.3.1 (b) Direct or indirect abuse of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue performance of his/her duties/functions during routine daily operations, including making further Protected Disclosures under this Policy.

4.3.2 The Whistle Blower may also report any violation of the above clause to the Audit Committee directly, which may direct an investigation into the same and decide suitable Disciplinary Action against the concerned.

4.4 Investigation Subject

4.4.1 All Investigation Subjects shall be duly informed about the Protected Disclosures made against them at the commencement of the formal investigation process and shall have regular opportunities for providing explanation during the course of the investigation process.

4.4.2 No Investigation Subject shall directly/indirectly interfere with the investigation process, till the completion of the investigation.

4.4.3 The Investigation Subject shall not destroy or tamper with any evidence, and shall have a duty to co-operate with the Vigilance officer and Investigators involved in the inquiry till the investigation process is completed.

4.4.4 During the course of the investigation, all Investigation Subjects shall have a right to consult any person(s) of their choice, other than the Investigators and/or the Vigilance officer and engage any legal counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings.

4.4.5 All Investigation Subjects shall have a right to be informed about the results of the investigation process in writing by the Vigilance officer after the completion of the inquiry. They will be given an opportunity to respond to the inquiry results, as contained in the investigation report.

4.4.6 Where the results of the investigation highlight that the allegations made against the Investigation Subject are eventually dismissed as untenable, then the Company shall reimburse all such reasonable costs as shall have been incurred by the Investigation Subject to defend him/her, during the process of investigation.

4.4.7 In such cases, the Investigation Subject should also be consulted whether a public disclosure of the investigation result would be in their best interest. The Audit Committee shall have the final discretion on whether such disclosure is necessary and if yes, then on the scope and medium of such disclosure.

4.5 Vigilance officer's Responsibilities

4.5.1 The Vigilance officer is duly authorized by the Board of Directors to receive/oversee any Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy. He/She is responsible for ensuring appropriate action.

4.5.2 The Vigilance officer in consultation with the Chairman of the Audit Committee may consider involving any Investigators for the purpose of conducting the investigation. However, the investigations shall be launched only after the review of Protected Disclosure by the Vigilance officer, which establishes that:

4.5.2 (a) The Protected Disclosure made constitutes an unethical practice, as defined under this Policy;

4.5.2 (b) The Protected Disclosure made is supported by adequate information to support an Investigation;

4.5.2 (c) In case of anonymous disclosure, Vigilance officer shall, at his end, examine the possible intentions and genuineness of the disclosure in advance before going ahead with the investigation. In case Vigilance officer suspects that the allegation has been made with mala-fide intentions or is frivolous in nature, or is not genuine, he/she can decide to drop the case.

4.5.3 In order to protect the identity of the complainant, the Vigilance Officer will not issue any acknowledgement to the complainants and they are advised neither to write their name / address on the envelope nor enter into any further correspondence with the Vigilance Officer.

4.5.4 The Vigilance officer shall detach the first page of the Protected Disclosure Form (bearing the details of the Whistle Blower), before forwarding the relevant Protected Disclosure to the Audit Committee, to ensure that the confidentiality of the Whistle Blower is maintained during the investigation process.

4.6 Investigators

4.6.1 The Investigator(s) shall conduct the inquiry in a fair and unbiased manner.

4.6.2 The Investigator(s) shall ensure complete fact-finding.

4.6.3 The Investigator(s) shall maintain strict confidentiality at all times.
